(*) Naming opportunities fulfilled
The Dale Augenstein Alumni Center provides much-needed space for both visiting alumni and the WKU community to hold meetings, presentations, social events, and educational programs. Many functions are accommodated in a variety of venues within the building that are accessible to virtually any size audience. Housing office space for the Office of Alumni Relations and Annual Giving, the Office of Advancement Services and the WKU Foundation, the Alumni Center is located in a new development immediately adjacent to campus with views to Van Meter Hall and the historic campus.

Calvin M. and Rosella S. Isbell Atrium
$250,000

The Atrium is a comfortable venue for receptions, events, entertainment, and social gatherings. The Atrium is a welcoming two story space with seating, the Sinks Grand Fireplace, the Duvall Grand Staircase, and the Atrium Bar. It adjoins the WKU Museum and receives visitors to the Alumni Center.

Robertson and Feix Grand Ballrooms
$250,000

Named for WKU icons Lee Robertson and Jimmy Feix, the Ballrooms are the heart of the Augenstein Alumni Center. These spacious rooms, adorned with rich carpeting and fine fixtures, are used for a range of events, including business meetings, lectures, formal dinners and wedding receptions. When combined, the Robertson and Feix Ballrooms accommodate up to 300 for dinner and as many as 1,000 theatre-style.

Rick and Ann Guillaume Executive Board Room
$250,000

The Rick and Ann Guillaume Executive Board Room is the premiere choice on campus for board and committee meetings. Featuring excellent carpeting and finishes, the room holds a boardroom table that accommodates up to 34 people at comfortable chairs. The space also includes multimedia capabilities and direct access to the Greenwell Executive Dining Room. There are also outstanding views of Van Meter Hall and the top of campus via French doors opening onto the second floor veranda.

State Farm Courtyard
$250,000

The State Farm Courtyard is a welcoming outdoor space connecting the Alumni Center with the WKU Store, coffee shop and market and parking garage. One entrance boasts a statue of Big Red while the entire space contains landscaped beds and outdoor seating, creating an excellent space for events.

Hays T. and Betty J. Watkins Executive Auditorium
$250,000

The Watkins Executive Auditorium offers tiered seating, workspace, and electric and network connections for up to 75 guests. With comfortable seating and excellent audio-visual capacity, this space will welcome all prospective students to WKU, as well as numerous classes, speakers and guest lecturers.

WKU Museum
$250,000

The WKU Museum is a unique space that depicts the traditions and spirit of WKU. It contains memorabilia from the rich history of WKU, reflecting excellence and evoking a sense of pride for all who pass through. This room represents the past, present, and future of the institution.

Balcony (Proposal Pending)
$100,000
The Balcony has a spectacular view of campus, looking up the Hill to Van Meter Hall. Set amongst the stately ionic columns on the front of the building, this space is certainly a favorite among visitors.

Dan and Anne Greenwell Executive Dining Room

$100,000

The Greenwell Executive Dining Room is a beautiful setting with rich fixtures, cabinetry and china and features a specially designed stained glass chandelier. A perfect location for small social gatherings, receptions, meetings, and luncheons, the Dining Room is a private space with direct access to the Guillaume Executive Board Room.

Hall of Inspiration (Proposal Pending)

$100,000

The Hall of Inspiration serves as a space to recognize WKU's Hall of Distinguished Alumni, as well as celebrate the many contributions to our society made by WKU alumni. The Hall is truly a place that encapsulates the important, rich, and rewarding successes that can be achieved with a WKU education.

Bob and Martha Jean Owsley Executive Library

$100,000

Featuring wood flooring, wood casework, area rugs and comfortable seating, the Owsley Library is a beautiful room and one of the most charming on the entire WKU campus. The Owsley Library houses a variety of literature about WKU, as well as works authored by WKU alumni, faculty, staff, and students. Additionally, the Owsley Library holds videos of WKU’s Hall of Distinguished Alumni and previous issues of the Talisman, College Heights Herald and WKU ALUMNUS, ALUMNI, and WKU SPIRIT.

Mutchler Family Living Room

$100,000

For smaller gatherings, including meetings, retreats and luncheons, the Mutchler Family Living Room provides a unique "homelike" environment that includes informal seating (couches, loveseats, armchairs, etc.), a fireplace gifted by the Greater Louisville Alumni Chapter, a television and a wet bar made possible through a gift from Bill Sinks. The Mutchler Family Living Room is ideal for stand-up receptions, open houses, watching a sporting event and other intimate gatherings.

Leigh Roy Bell TopperTalk Room

$100,000

WKU's student ambassadors use the Bell TopperTalk Room as they make their annual calls to WKU's alumni and friends. Gifts from alumni and friends provide operating capital for departments and programs to purchase resources such as technology and training necessary to prepare graduates for the highly competitive marketplace they face upon graduation. Alumni, parents, friends and graduating seniors are all contacted from this room throughout the year.

Wilson - Gregory Fountain

$75,000

The Fountain is located in front of the Augenstein Alumni Center. Wrapped in limestone and containing 13 bubblers representing the 13 columns of WKU’s Gander Terry Colonnade and the Alumni Association’s 2013 Centennial, the Fountain adds to the visual and aural aesthetics of the Alumni Center.

John and Carolyn Ridley Veranda

$75,000

The Veranda has a spectacular view of campus from the front of the Augenstein Alumni Center, looking up the Hill to Van Meter Hall. With access from the Guillaume Executive Board Room or the mezzanine, the Veranda is a wonderful outdoor space for small gatherings.

Marc Satterthwaite Atrium Bar

$50,000

The Atrium Bar offers an attractive space for serving during various events. Outfitted with fine countertops and cabinetry, the Atrium Bar adds certain flair to an already inviting and comfortable space.

Big Red Statue by the Young Alumni Council

$50,000
A life-size statue of Big Red is located on the Casalengo Terrace at the entrance to the State Farm Plaza. A focal point and popular photo spot for many visitors, Big Red welcomes Hilltoppers from across the globe on their visits to the Augenstein Alumni Center.

Donald L. Smith Conference Room

$50,000

The Donald L. Smith Conference Room, located on the third floor of the Augenstein Alumni Center, looks to Van Meter Hall and the top of the Hill. Serving primarily the needs of staff housed in the building, the Conference Room has as its focal point, made possible through a gift from Paul and Ann Calico, a table constructed of wood from the original Diddle Arena playing surface.

Gerald W. Fudge Employee Lounge

$50,000

The Fudge Lounge allows staff and TopperTalk callers at the Augenstein Alumni Center to have a private break area. Complete with refrigerator, microwave, television and other amenities, the lounge serves as a comfortable space for meals and other breaks and offers access to an outdoor patio.

Farmers National Bank Exhibit Gallery

$50,000

The Farmers National Bank Exhibit Gallery is located adjacent to the Atrium and is dedicated to rotating exhibits showcasing the various artistic and photographic talents and styles of alumni, faculty, and students of WKU.

Darlene and R. Timothy Sinks Grand Fireplace

$50,000

The Sinks Grand Fireplace is a two story stone fireplace located in the Atrium of the Augenstein Alumni Center. Adding to the comfortable feel of the space, the Fireplace is a feature that evokes a sense of “home” that all alumni should feel when visiting the Augenstein Alumni Center.

Greg and Lucy Duvall Grand Staircase

$50,000

The Duvall Grand Staircase is a beautiful way to access the second floor of the Augenstein Alumni Center. Located opposite the Sinks Grand Fireplace in the Atrium the finely appointed staircase will serve as a focal point for visitors and photo opportunities for large groups.

LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) Certification

$50,000

The Augenstein Alumni Center is constructed to LEED standards. Many of the materials, the sources of materials, the construction process and even the end use of the building reflect the Alumni Association’s commitment to sustainability.

Loggia

$50,000

The Loggia is the primary entry point into the Augenstein Alumni Center. Wrapped in limestone, it serves as a backdrop for the Wilson-Gregory Fountain and is the foundation for the stately columns and roof that prominently note the front of the building.

Mezzanine by Donald J. and Jennifer W. Greulich

$50,000

The Mezzanine overlooks the Grand Atrium and serves as lobby space for the Guillaume Executive Board Room and the Watkins Executive Auditorium. Additionally, the Mezzanine houses the Mezzanine Internet Bar provided by Scott and Anndee Crutcher and serves as an entry to the Hall of Inspiration.

Jayah and Catherine Kawa Video Wall

$25,000

Welcoming visitors following their entry into the Augenstein Alumni Center, the Kawa Video Wall will provide information, education and entertainment regarding the Alumni Center and WKU at large.
Advancement Services Office Suite $25,000
The Advancement Services Office Suite houses the operational part of WKU’s Division of Development and Alumni Relations. The Advancement Services team enters and receipts all gifts received by WKU, maintains the alumni and donor database and provides research for the Division.

Alumni Association Office Suite $25,000
The Alumni Association Office Suite houses the “Uncle Billy” Craig Executive Director’s Office as well as staff and support areas for the Alumni Programming unit.

Alumni Association Presidents’ Gallery $25,000

Troy and Kimberly Nunn Annual Giving Office Suite $25,000
The Troy Nunn Annual Giving Office Suite houses the team primarily responsible for generating annual, repeatable gifts to WKU and its many departments and programs. This occurs through personal visits, direct mail, telephone and electronic communication.

Big Red Mosaic Collage by Michelle Mattingly Wells $25,000
The photo collage on the 3rd floor of the Alumni Center is comprised of nearly 2,000 Red Towel Travel photos that reveal a larger than life collage of Big Red.

Elevator by Catherine and Dr. Harry C. Stephenson $25,000
The Stephenson Elevator not only provides service to all three floors, but is uniquely WKU with its decorative walls, Red Towel buttons and WKU music.

Family Trees $25,000
The landscaping for the east side of the Augenstein Alumni Center will include eight trees that can be named for families with deep roots on the Hill. This will be a beautiful and lasting way to recognize the growing accomplishments of family members who have the common trait of being Hilltoppers.

Mitchell Leichhardt Flower Garden $25,000
The Leichhardt Flower Garden is a seasonally landscaped area located at the front corner of the Augenstein Alumni Center. This prominent visual space will greatly enhance the appearance of the building exterior.

Marketing & Communications Office Suite $25,000
The Marketing and Communications Suite houses the creative staff focused on the Alumni Association’s publications, strategy and brand, including WKU SPIRIT magazine.

Mary Kathryn Clendenin Patio $25,000
The Clendenin Patio is a comfortable space for those who desire to relax in the outdoors. The Patio may be accessed via the Owsley Library or the Fudge Employee Lounge and may serve as event space.

Reception Area - 3rd Floor $25,000
The Reception Area welcomes those visiting the Office of Alumni Relations & Annual Giving, the WKU Foundation and the Office of Advancement Services.
Debbie and Roger W. Casalengo Terrace $25,000

The Casalengo Terrace hosts the Big Red Statue and offers a pleasant overlook to the State Farm Plaza. The Terrace serves as functional outdoor space, providing an attractive entry to the Augenstein Alumni Center from the parking garage and hotel.

WKU Foundation Office Suite (Proposal Pending) $25,000

The WKU Foundation Suite houses the offices and operations of the WKU Foundation. The Foundation is an independent, nonprofit organization. Chartered in 1993, it promotes the welfare and future development of WKU’s educational goals by managing assets for the benefit of WKU.

WKU Mosaic by Ruth and Fred Skaggs $25,000

The WKU Mosaic, gifted by Ruth and Fred Skaggs, is located on wall space outside the entrances to the Grand Ballrooms. The Mosaic depicts various campus locations and events from WKU’s history. The design was selected from entries in a WKU student design contest.

WKU Museum Exhibit Cases (3 Named) $25,000

Cases within the WKU Museum house collections of memorabilia from the rich history of WKU and its alumni. Each exhibition is an opportunity to showcase the accomplishments of alumni and inform visitors of the limitless potential of WKU alumni.

WKU Museum Seal by The Honorable Dale Ross $25,000

The WKU Museum Floor Seal is an image of the WKU Seal, measuring several feet wide, that has been cut into the floor of the Museum. This unique treatment adds panache to a uniquely WKU space.

WKU Museum Kiosk $25,000

The WKU Museum houses a touch screen kiosk that allows alumni and guests to take a virtual campus tour, look up alumni and friends, play Hall of Distinguished Alumni videos, navigate the WKU and Alumni Association websites and more.

Dining Room China Cabinet by Howard A. and Susan O. Pincus $15,000

The China Cabinet, made possible through a gift from Howard and Susan Pincus, is a beautiful addition to the Greenwell Executive Dining Room. Housing WKU China, it provides a spirited décor and is functional for entertaining.

Dining Room Table by Melinda and Jonathan L. Rue $15,000

The Dining Room Table, located in the Greenwell Executive Dining Room, was gifted by Jon and Melinda Rue is a custom-designed and built table containing an inlay of the WKU Seal.

Hall of Inspiration Displays (11) (1 named) $15,000

The Hall of Inspiration will contain displays highlighting amazing accomplishments of WKU alumni and celebrate all one can accomplish with a WKU education.

Library Bookshelves (3) (2 named) $15,000

Three walls of the Owsley Library are outfitted with built-in wood bookshelves reaching from floor to ceiling. Complete with literature about WKU, as well as works authored by WKU alumni, faculty, staff, and students, these walls serve as the heart of this attractive room.
Living Room Bar by Bill and Amanda Sinks  $15,000

The Living Room Bar is a well-appointed corner of the Mutchler Living Room complete with wood cabinetry, granite countertops, sink, and serving space. Additionally, this area hosts a display cabinet of well-known, unique and rare Kentucky bourbons.

Living Room Fireplace by the Greater Louisville Alumni Chapter $15,000

A replica of the living room fireplace in the Craig Alumni Center, the Fireplace in the Mutchler Living Room adds ambiance and the feel of “home” to this comfortable space.

Mezzanine Exhibit $15,000

Located on the Mezzanine near the entry to the Hall of Inspiration, this exhibit space provides for additional artistic displays highlighting the incredible talent of WKU alumni, faculty, staff and students.

Mezzanine Internet Bar by Anndee and Scott Crutcher $15,000

A bar and seating area containing workspace as well as electrical and internet connections is a comfortable and convenient stop for those needing to “stay connected.” Additionally, this area holds art exhibit space and offers the ability to act as serving space during event breaks and receptions.

Mirror Television – Atrium $15,000

Placed on the Sinks Grand Fireplace, this unique amenity is a beautifully framed mirror appropriate for this inviting space. When desired, the mirror becomes a high-quality television, providing both form and function.

Patio Bar by Julie Harris Hinson $15,000

Accessed from the Owsley Library or Employee Lounge, the Patio Bar will provide for food and beverages in an intimate outdoor setting.

Window Seats – 1st Floor Corridor (3) (1 Named) $15,000

Located along the corridor outside the Robertson and Feix Ballrooms, three window seats face the Skaggs Mosaic and provide views to the Courtyard Plaza.

Administrative Offices (17) $10,000

The Administrative Offices are staff offices for the Office of Alumni Relations & Annual Giving, the Office of Advancement Services, and the WKU Foundation. The WKU Alumni Association exists to enhance and strengthen the WKU Spirit. Through an engaging mix of programs, services, activities, and events, alumni are encouraged to develop strong ties with each other and reconnect with their alma mater. The Alumni Association works very diligently at keeping all alumni involved with the happenings on “the Hill.” Each office provides a unique naming opportunity to support the work done by the staff each day.

Art Television – Owsley Library by Tim and Laura Rhea $10,000

Placed on the wall as a piece of art, this unique amenity is a beautifully framed version of WKU’s original campus master plan. When desired, the image morphs into a high-quality television with the push of a button, providing both form and function, history and technology.

Conference Room Table by Paul and Ann Calico $10,000

The table located in the Donald L. Smith Conference room was constructed of wood from the original playing surface in Diddle Arena. That playing surface was used from 1963 – 2003 and witnessed a combined 752 wins from the Hilltopper and Lady Topper basketball teams. The table surface has been painted to look like the current Diddle Arena floor.
